Mediator chosen in SWIM battle

Farmers, state and federal officials and environmentalists have finally agreed on something: the mediator they will allow to try to resolve their differences.

Gerald Cormick, a faculty member at the University of Washington, was selected by the feuding sides to try to reach an equitable arrangement for cleaning up the Everglades, and for paying for the cleanup.

He founded The Mediation Institute in Seattle and is a pioneer in the field of environmental mediation.

The South Florida Water Management District created the Surface Water Improvement and Maintenance Plan (SWIM) in response to a federal lawsuit. But the SWIM Plan is expensive - at least $400 million - and debates about who will pay are heated.

SFWMD says it cannot afford to build the required Stormwater Treatment Areas (STAs) without more money - lots of it. Financial studies completed last month show the District short at least $22 million for the project.

But farmers say the project won't work as designed and cite studies showing the amount of

Community observes AIDS Awareness Week

By BRENDA BUNTING

One four-letter word that has a special meaning in the Glades is AIDS - Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome. AIDS has stricken this area harder than other parts of the country and local residents are pausing this week to remember those who have died from the disease.

November 30 through December 6 has been designated World AIDS Awareness Week. Several activities have been going on and more are planned.

Monday, November 30, the Comprehensive AIDS Program (CAP) passed out information at local grocery stores.

On Tuesday, December 1, local radio station WBGF and Clewiston radio station WAFB observed a "Moment without Music" in memory of those who died from the illness.

The Zora Neale Hurston Roof Garden Museum and the Belle Glade Municipal Library covered some of their artwork on Wednesday to symbolize "A day without Art."

An AIDS update luncheon is planned for Thursday, Dec. 3 from noon to 2 p.m. at the Drawbridge Cafe. Speakers will be Kathy Robinson, who will speak on "AIDS and the Family in Palm Beach County," and Marilyn Campbell, with the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services in West Palm Beach, who will speak on women's issues and HIV, and Jim Bell, executive director with Channel 29, who will address the issue of AIDS and the media.

According to Mary Kannel, Clinic Services Coordinator for CAP, the luncheon is already sold out, with over 85 people planning to attend.

On Friday, Dec. 4 there will be a visual display at the C.L. Brumback Health Department. Families of AIDS victims will commemorate their loved ones with pictures, poems and letters.

To bring the Glades area AIDS Awareness Week to a close, the Third Annual "Walk In The Light" World AIDS Commemorative Service will be held Saturday, Dec. 5 at Mount Zion AME Church, 933 S. Avenue C, Belle Glade at 5:30 p.m.

The candlelight service will feature Rev. R.E. Odom of the New Bethel Missionary Baptist Church as well as other speakers. The New Bethel Baptist Church Choir will provide special music, along with the Community Mass Choir.

Festival and bike-a-thon planned for February 20

By BRENDA BUNTING
SUN Editor

Organizers of a festival that will take place in February are hopeful that former President Jimmy Carter will attend.

The Lake Okeechobee Classic, an event to benefit Habitat for Humanity, will begin at 10 a.m. on February 20 at the Pahokee dike.

Festival committee member Claudio Caramma said Habitat for Humanity is one project Mr. Carter has had an interest in for years.

"We're hopeful he will attend. We haven't heard back from him yet," Mr. Caramma said.

U.S. Sugar has agreed to underwrite the cost of bringing Mr. Carter to the Glades and will furnish accommodations for him and his staff at the Clewiston Inn.

The Lake Okeechobee Classic is a new festival that Mr. Caramma said will be an annual event.

"I want to stress that all the money raised from the festival will stay in the Glades," he said.

The bike-a-thon will start the morning of the festival on the dike and go through Belle Glade, South Bay and turn around at U.S. Sugar's Corporate headquarters. It will end at the Pahokee Campgrounds.

Bike-event organizer John Nasby said participants can leave as early as 6 a.m. and travel 10 miles and turn around or go the entire distance.

"You have the option of riding your mountain bike along the top of the dike, or taking the fast track along the road. You also have the option of riding either 10, 25, 50 or 75 miles. We don't want anyone to overtax themselves," said Mr. Nasby. "We want everyone to have a good time."

The registration fee is $35 and participants will receive a t-shirt and be treated to a barbecue at the end of the ride.

"When you get on the route, you'll see the need for affordable housing," said Mr. Nasby, who added he has made the trip.

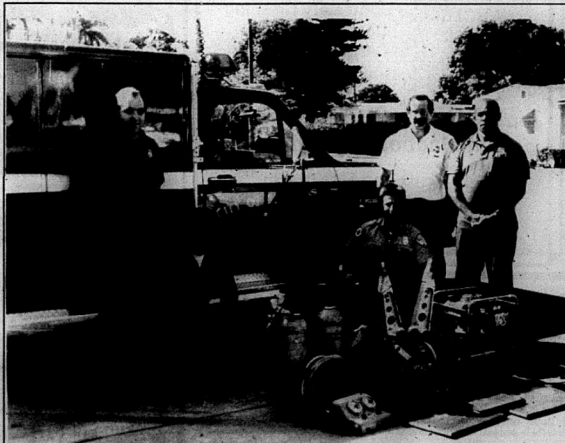

Corporate sponsors are being sought for 12 stops along the route and 20 massage therapists will be on hand to help the bikers with those sore leg and shoulder muscles.

Organizers are hoping to raise $10,000 or more from the festival and bike-a-thon.

"We'll use the money to build new homes in the Glades and to restore older homes," said Mr. Caramma.

"We're shooting to be the biggest event in the Glades. This is the first time that I know of that the Glades has come together for a festival."

Other activities planned at the dike include two bands, pony rides and clowns, and food booths. Festival organizers include representatives from Pahokee, South Bay, Belle Glade and Clewiston.

One big can opener...Firefighters proudly display the 'Jaws of Life', a tool used to extricate victims from their car after accidents when they are trapped in their vehicles. The tool's correct name is the Hurst Extractor, and it was used last week to pry 25-year-old Jose James from the wreckage of his 1981 Ford. Standing, from left are firefighters Joe James, Lt. Frank Cote and Vince Taylor. Kneeling is Peter Lapi and Chuck Gordis.

Man extricated with "Jaws of Life"

The 'Jaws of Life' were used last Thursday evening to cut a man out of his badly damaged car.

Jose Luis Jamies, 25, of 1711 Jacaranda Avenue, Belle Glade was trapped in his 1981 Ford four-door car after a two-car collision on N.E. Avenue L.

When police, fire and medical help arrived, Mr. Jamies was found to be in shock and suffering from numerous fractures and severe trauma, according to Frank Cote of the Belle Glade Fire Department.

Firefighters immediately began using the Hurst extraction tool, better known as the 'Jaws of Life' to extricate the injured man.

He was taken by Trauma-Hawk to St. Mary's Hospital where he is listed in stable condition.

Also involved in the accident was 20-year-old Angel Flores of 917 N.W. 27th Street, Belle Glade. He was driving eastbound in a 1987 Ford pickup when the accident occurred.

Patrolman Mark Hickman said his investigation revealed Mr. Jamies was traveling westbound on N.E. Avenue L when his car crossed the center line into the path of Mr. Flores' car.

Police say the accident may be alcohol related and charges are pending.

Lt. Cote said because of the extent of damage it took almost 30 minutes to get Mr. Jamies out of the car.

"But, if the Hurst tool had not been available, we would have possibly lost him," Lt. Cote said.

A passenger in Mr. Jamies car, Jose Carvajal, refused treatment at the scene. Mr. Flores and a passenger in his car, Maria Guzman, 24, were taken to Glades General Hospital and their cuts and bruises were treated.

Bloodmobile gets permanent location at South Bay Growers

The Palm Beach Blood Bank hosted a ribbon-cutting ceremony at South Bay Growers November 24 to introduce its Lake Okeechobee bloodmobile to the community.

"The Blood Bank has traveled to the Lake Okeechobee area for many years," said Blood Bank president John Flynn.

"Hospital patients in five counties have benefited from the dedicated support shown by volunteer donors who live in Belle Glade, South Bay, Clewiston, Moore Haven, Okeechobee, Pahokee, and the surrounding communities."

Now, with the support of South Bay Growers, a subsidiary of U.S. Sugar, giving blood will be even more convenient for residents of the western communities, said Mr. Flynn.

South Bay Growers has created permanent parking space for a bloodmobile at its main facility in South Bay. The mobile unit will travel through the surrounding Lake Okeechobee area on a regular basis and return to its space at South Bay Growers at the end of each day.

"South Bay Growers is very pleased to support the important work of the Palm Beach Blood Bank and to help make donating blood more convenient for area residents," said Jerry Grace, Vice President and General Manager for South Bay Growers.

The ribbon-cutting ceremony was attended by representatives from South Bay Growers, U.S. Sugar Corp., Hendry General Hospital, the Palm Beach Blood Bank, and other community organizations.

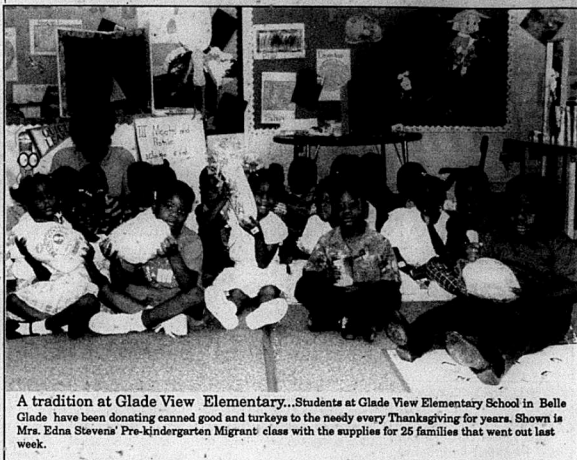

The permanent presence of the mobile unit in the western area allows it to become a regular part of the community and saves valuable travel time. In the past, the Palm Beach Blood Bank's bloodmobile traveled from its headquarters in West Palm Beach to serve the Lake Okeechobee area.

The Palm Beach Blood Bank provides a safe and adequate blood supply for patients at 43 healthcare facilities throughout a five-county area, said Mr. Flynn.

These include Hendry General Hospital, Glades General Hospital, Everglades Memorial Hospital, and HCA Raulerson Hospital.

Each day, the Blood Bank must collect nearly 300 pints of blood to meet area demands. Donors must be at least 17 years old, weigh 100 pounds or more, and be in good general health. For information on scheduling a drive call 813-983-8855.

A tradition at Glade View Elementary...Students at Glade View Elementary School in Belle Glade have been donating canned goods and turkeys to the needy every Thanksgiving for years. Wildlife Alert catches lawbreakers while saving endangered animals Lawbreakers are paying since the Wildlife Alert reward program was instituted by the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission in 1979.

According to Lt. Jim Huffstodt, a GFC information officer based in West Palm Beach, 11,000 conservation lawbreakers have been arrested since the program began.

"Wildlife Alert is one of the best weapons we have in protecting Florida's fish and wildlife resources," said Lt. Huffstodt. "The program has definitely made a difference."

Wildlife Alert consists of five different toll-free telephone numbers across the state. The lines are manned 24-hours-a-day, 365-days-a-year.

Callers can provide information about conservation lawbreakers as well as environmental violations, and remain anonymous.

Calls which lead to convictions qualify the caller for cash rewards. Lt. Huffstodt said Wildlife Alert has distributed more than $175,000 in rewards since its inception.

"Many times the Wildlife Alert caller will refuse the reward and request the money be put back in the Wildlife Alert Fund," he said. "And, we have many judges throughout the state who include a Wildlife Alert donation as part of the punishment for conservation violators." A typical Wildlife Alert reward averages $250. The GFC has, however, authorized rewards of up to $1,000 on numerous occasions when the call related to endangered species such as the Florida panther and the American bald eagle.

The Wildlife Alert hotline in West Palm Beach is 1-800-432-2046.

A permanent location...The Palm Beach Blood Bank has established a permanent location at South Bay Growers, a subsidiary of U.S. Sugar. The company agreed to let the bloodmobile park its mobile unit on a space in the parking area. A ribbon-cutting ceremony was attended by representatives of the Blood Bank and the Company November 24. From left is Ellen Wine, Judy Sanchez, Jerry Grace, Silvia Walters, Rodney Dorsette, and Doug Johansen.

WHIPLASH

Whiplash injuries can result from a sudden backward and forward whipping movement of the neck, caused by an auto collision, a fall, a powerful slap on the back, or even a violent sneeze. The ligaments and muscles controlling the spinal segments are stretched or sprained, allowing the vertebrae to slip into abnormal positions. Nerves are then "pinched" or irritated, giving rise to headaches, nausea, dizziness and other pain.

Clewiston Museum to have traveling display through Feb.

The Clewiston Museum is announcing the arrival and display of a traveling exhibit entitled "The Age of Steam on Florida Waters." This exhibit will continue until February 20.

A second exhibit is a continuation of an art display by Marian DeVore of Boynton Beach. Ms. DeVore's father, Mr. Harry DeVore, is a resident of Clewiston. This display will also have a few pieces for sale.

"The Age of Steam on Florida Waters" exhibit consists of 23 framed photographs, highlighting the great steamboats that regularly plied Florida's waters at the turn of the century. River steamboats are represented here, as are ocean-going ships, excursion launches, and small deep-sea craft.

Visitors to the exhibit are offered the opportunity to harken back to a bygone age when paddle-wheelers set the pace of travel. Viewers will become familiar with the various types of boats and ships found in the state during the age of steam.

The exhibit was prepared for the Museum of Florida History in Tallahassee by the Florida State Archives. It is made possible by a grant-in-aid from the Division of Historical Resources of the Florida Department of State.

The Clewiston Museum will hold regular showing hours from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday at 112 South Commercial Street.

Letter to the editor

Dear Editor:

May I begin this letter by stating that I have lived in South Florida since 1975 and read your newspaper frequently. I understand that as part of your newspaper duties, you help local citizens raise funds for various worthy causes. Presently, I find myself in such need and ask for your immediate help.

At this time, my one and only younger sister, Diana Duttenhoeffer, is facing her 36th birthday in approximately one month and has been diagnosed as having breast and lymph node cancer on her right side.

Thus far, she has received two surgical procedures and now must undergo radiation treatment, chemotherapy, and one or more bone marrow transplants.

These procedures in part will exceed her medical insurance but are necessary due to the radical growth of this form of cancer.

Her total medical bill is projected to be $172,000, according to Duke University of North Carolina.

My specific request of you is to "air" her story and to seek donations to be used for her treatments.

In closing, I thank you for taking the time to read this letter of many letters you receive and hope and pray you can help.

Thanks,

Major Veteran's Administration health care bill signed by President Bush

The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) has announced that legislation containing major health-care provision, including counseling programs for women veterans and a registry for Persian Gulf War veterans, was signed by the President this month.

The Veterans Health Care Act of 1992 authorizes VA to provide counseling services to women who have suffered trauma from sexual assault or harassment during military service. To be eligible, counseling must be sought within two years of discharge. However, those discharged more than two years are also eligible for counseling until December 31, 1993.

Because service-connection would not be required, VA could provide immediate services. The bill also directs VA to conduct a study to determine the health-care needs of women veterans.

The legislation also authorizes VA to establish a Persian Gulf War Veterans Health Registry that would include medical information on Gulf veterans. VA submitted legislation to establish the registry earlier this year.

The bill calls for VA and the Department of Defense (DOD) to consult each other to ensure that data collected by each department can be cross-referenced. VA and DOD also must contract with the National Academy of Sciences for a review of scientific, medical and other information on the health consequences of military service in the Persian Gulf.

Other provisions include:

- Expansion of sharing agreements with DOD allowing them to provide health care to military dependents and allowing DOD to provide health care to certain veteran's dependents.

- Establishment and maintenance of smoking areas for VA patients -- either indoor areas ventilated to the outside or accessible detached buildings that are heated and air-conditioned.

- Exclusion of all drug prices paid by VA from the "best price" calculation for Medicaid rebate purposes. The bill requires drug manufacturers to enter into a master agreement with VA to make all covered drugs available on the Federal Supply Schedule and to agree that the price of the covered drugs on the schedule and under depot contracting systems may not exceed 76 percent of the non-Federal average manufacturer for covered drugs by VA. DOD, the Public Health Service and any entity receiving Medicaid funds or funds under the Public Health Service Act.

- Permanent authorization of VA's matching grant program to assist states in constructing, acquiring, remodeling, and renovating state veterans homes.

- Establishment of a National Center for Preventive Health to promote, encourage, and monitor activities, including research and education.

- Permanent authorization of VA's Respite Care Program.

- Revision of the VA nurse pay schedule to expand it from four grades to five.

- Initiation of a demonstrated project to determine the feasibility and desirability of providing telephone service in patient rooms in VA health-care facilities.

President of the Glades Area Branch of the N.A.A.C.P.

The NAACP's early beginnings

Since its inception in 1909, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored people has had a long proud history of commitment, promise, struggle and continuing success in advancing the cause of freedom.

In the summer of 1908, the country was shocked by the account of race riots in Springfield, Illinois. Leading black and white citizens alike responded overwhelmingly to a call to fight for equality. The founding document that outlined the purpose of the NAACP was signed by 60 prominent black and white citizens committed to racial equality. At this meeting the following principles were adopted.

- 1) To eliminate racial discrimination and segregation from all aspects of public life in America.
- 2) To secure a free ballot for every qualified American citizen.
- 3) To seek justice in the Courts.
- 4) To secure legislation banning discrimination and segregation.
- 5) To secure equal jobs opportunities based upon individual merit without regard to race, religion, or national origin.
- 6) To end mob violence and police brutality.

After the initial meeting the group was integrated with the inclusion of prominent church leaders such as Bishop Alexander Walters of the A.M.E. Zion Church. Rev. William Henry Brooks, Minister of St. Mark's Methodist Episcopal Church of New York and other prominent leaders such as Dr. W.E.B. Dubois founder of the Niagara movement. A permanent body of the NAACP was organized in 1910 with Moorfield Storey as its first president.

The NAACP grew into an international organization blossoming in the major cities and championing the rights of the oppressed and paving the path for freedom and equality. Like many organization advocating for change, the NAACP has been criticized and falsely accused with unfounded allegations. In spite of these barriers, the organization's movement was like a flowing river, unstoppable, in spite of the odds.

It was later joined by prominent attorneys such as Thurgood Marshall who was later to become the first black Supreme Court Justice. Mr. Marshall not only championed the cause for freedom in the U.S., but also extended his expertise to African nations who in the late fifties and early sixties were embroiled in the struggle for independence from the jaws of the European colonists.

Mr. Marshall, for example, was engaged by the Republic of Kenya to help negotiate independence and subsequently drafted the new constitution of Kenya. My father, John Konchellah, A Kenyan legislator, attended the constitutional talks in London. He speaks highly of Justice Marshall and the role of the NAACP.

Within the continental United States, the struggle continues. The NAACP has had many victories which have opened doors for all political and numerical minorities in diverse areas. Among these are voting rights and segregation as documented in the landmark decision of Brown versus Board of Education which outlawed segregation in public schools. The famous 1964 Civil Rights Act and the Voting Rights Act of 1965 would not have come about without the legal persistence of the NAACP to ensure that all people are treated equally.

In the State of Florida, the first voting rights suit was filed in 1940 by Rev. Raymond Cromwell in Pensacola against the Florida Democratic Party, which did not allow blacks to vote in the primaries. As a result of that lawsuit, the Democratic Primaries were opened to all black citizens.

During the same period the Teacher Salary Equalization Suit was filed against the State of Florida. The ruling was that all teachers in the State's public schools would be paid the same salaries.

The agenda for the 1990's is political action and membership recruitment. The top priority for 1992 was reapportionment and redistricting. After the 1990 Census data was reported to the states, the state NAACP conference committee on reapportionment immediately began analyzing the information.

The committee met with members of both the Florida House and Senate committees as early as March 1991. Experts on reapportionment, were consulted and when the time came the NAACP filed its plan with the courts. When the experts filed their plan with U.S. Judge C. Atkins a plan was recommended patterned on the plan submitted by the State conference of NAACP branches which includes our Glades area branch.

For the first time since reconstruction, African Americans in Florida had a chance to elect two members to the U.S. House of Representatives. They both won with overwhelming support. As a result, we now have Congresswoman Carrie Meeks and Congressman Alcee Hastings representing districts that came about as a result of NAACP advocacy, along with others who saw a need for equitable representation.

Another African American congressman was also elected in northeast Florida. The plan has therefore created a majority black congressional district in Miami and one in northeast Florida and a third "influence" district north of Miami with a forty-six percent black voting age population.

At the local level, the NAACP continues to advocate against discrimination, injustice and inequality.

As we head toward a new political chapter, blacks and whites alike should remember that without justice, there is no peace. Without peace, there is no harmony. Without harmony, there is no progress.

The NAACP urges the Glades community to unite together and work towards the improvement of race relations, equality, create more year-round jobs and a harmonious community where all can live together in peace regardless of color, race or national origin.

We are all in this together, so become part of the solution. Yes, we have come a long way. However, we do have a long way to go.

Glades Day School initiated 25 students into membership in the National Honor and Junior Societies in an evening ceremony held Tuesday, December 1, in the school's Dora B. McWhorter Hall.

"The National Honor Society ranks as one of the oldest and most prestigious national organizations for high school students. To be eligible for membership, students must have a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 and meet high standards of leadership, service, and character.

The GDS chapter involves members in community services such as the annual collection of toys and food for the needy at Christmas, goodie baskets at Easter, volunteer work at the County Health Department, and as tutors for other students. Most recently, they sponsored a "Food for Families" drive at GDS.

This year's inductees into the NHS included: Hana Barhoush, Shelley Davis, Heather Evans, Jeff Goodale, Amy Jo Hatten, Lori Lamb, Wayne Schmidt, Sarah Willis, and Sara Woodham. Don Garrett selected to attend national conference

Don Garrett of Belle Glade has been selected to attend the National Youth Leaders Conference from December 8 to 13 in Washington D.C.

He is a student at Glades Day School here.

Having demonstrated academic achievement, leadership, and citizenship, he will be among 350 outstanding high school students from across the nation at the conference sponsored by the Congressional Youth Leadership Council.

The theme of the National Youth Leaders Conference is "The Leaders of Tomorrow Meeting the Leaders of Today."

Throughout the six-day conference, students will meet with key leaders and newsmakers from the three branches of government, the media, and the diplomatic corps.

Highlight of the program will include welcoming remarks from a Member of Congress on the Floor of the United States house of Representatives and a panel discussion led by prominent journalists at the National Press Club.

Students will also visit foreign embassies and receive a policy briefing from senior government officials. In addition, scholars will meet with staff members from their senators' and representative's offices to discuss the 1992 election and other key issues.

Don Garrett

Founded in 1985, the Congressional Youth Leadership Council is a non-profit, non-partisan educational organization committed to recognizing outstanding young people and providing them with a "hands-on" civic learning experience in the nation's capital.

Gifts For Men

Men—they're so hard to buy for! Last on our list, and hardest to please. But this doesn't have to be true. Even the man who has everything can be easy to shop for. What should you get him? More of what he already has, of course. Do clothes really make the man? With the new styles we'll see this year, you may find clothes make your man a little more relaxed and "real" looking. The outdoors man is in and looking great. Brushed looks in cotton and flannel shirts, pants and jackets give the impression of a tougher man. Stuede and stone-washed also contribute to this look.

Sports leather outerwear is more popular as well. Velvets, suede, nubuck, Ultra Antique Cow and Waxy Lamb are some of the newest styles in leather.

Colors also play a part in the outdoor style. We can expect to see a lot of leaf colors for slacks as well as shades of olive and sage. Blue-green tints are coming, too, such as alpine green, spruce green, teal green, moss and hunter green. Men are taking a more relaxed look; maybe this new look will make them feel more relaxed as well.

If your man doesn't want clothes, maybe he would like some new golfing props. Several new golf balls are on the market. One golf ball is said to produce maximum velocity, longer distance and uncanny accuracy. Other new items include neon golf balls and "floaters" that do not sink to the bottom of water hazards.

New golf clubs are another idea. One club is a pitching wedge, sand wedge and lob wedge all in one. Other new gadgets include a golf ball monogram or a "golf scope" to judge distance.

Although your man may not be into clothes or golf, he will surely love a new toy. Men love to stretch their imaginations and have fun. Look to find something he always wanted as a child—a train set or race track, for example. Other, more expensive items such as a dirt bike, 4-wheeler or JET SKI are sure to bring out the childish daredevil in him.

The ideas are endless. With a little creative thinking, you'll find the hardest person to shop for may be easier than you thought.

One-Bowl Brownies— A Fantastically Fudgy Treat

(NU)—What is the yummiest, chocolatest snack in the whole wide world? Homemade chocolate brownies, of course. Everyone loves the tantalizing aroma that fills the air when brownies are baking. And, what could be more enjoyable than eating brownies warm from the oven?

Making delicious homemade brownies is now a snap thanks to the home economists for Baker's Chocolate. They have developed a recipe for One-Bowl Brownies that is almost as easy as a mix.

Baker's One-Bowl Brownie recipe makes 24 brownies—enough to satisfy a group of hungry kids during a weekday study session or a weekend play day. Serve One-Bowl Brownies with a glass of cold milk or top with a scoop of ice cream.

Any way you eat them, straight from the pan or crowned with your favorite topping, the fudgy flavor and simple preparation of Baker's One-Bowl Brownies are sure to make them an American classic.

One-Bowl Brownies

4 squares Baker's Unsweetened Chocolate
3/4 cup (1-1/2 sticks) margarine
2 cups sugar
3 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup all-purpose flour
1 cup coarsely chopped nuts (optional)

Heat oven to 350° F.

Microwave chocolate and margarine in large microwaveable bowl on HIGH for 2 minutes or until margarine is melted. Stir until chocolate is completely melted. Stir sugar into melted chocolate mixture. Mix in eggs and vanilla until well blended. Stir in flour and nuts. Spread in greased 13x9-inch pan.

Bake for 30 to 35 minutes or until toothpick inserted in center comes out with fudgy crumbs. (DO NOT OVERBAKE.) Cool in pan; cut into squares.

Makes 24 brownies.

Note: When using a glass baking dish, reduce oven temperature to 325° F.

For cakelike brownies, stir in 1/2 cup milk with eggs and vanilla. Increase flour to 1-1/2 cups.

Simple and Delicious Bars

Bars are just as luscious as cookies but they don't take as long to prepare. There's no filling up the baking sheets every 10 minutes until six-dozen cookies are baked. Give these timesaving recipes a try:

Cranberry-Apple Streusel Bars

2 cups plus 3 tablespoons unsifted all-purpose flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
2/3 cup butter or margarine, softened
1 can (12 ounce) apple filling
1 cup whole-berry cranberry sauce
1 teaspoon grated orange peel

Preheat oven to 400° F. Grease 13x9x2-inch baking pan; set aside.

In large bowl, combine 2 cups flour, 1/4 teaspoon salt and brown sugar. With pastry blender or two knives, cut in butter until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Remove 1/2 cup mixture; set aside. Press remaining mixture into bottom of prepared pan. Bake 10 minutes or until lightly browned. Cool 10 minutes.

Meanwhile, in medium bowl, combine apple filling, cranberry sauce, grated orange peel and the remaining flour and cinnamon. Spread evenly over crust in pan. Sprinkle with reserved flour mixture. Bake 25 minutes, or until lightly browned. Cool in pan on wire rack. Cut into bars.

Makes 28 bars.

Lemon Mincemeat Bars

1/2 cup plus 3 tablespoons butter or margarine
3/4 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1/4 cup lemon juice
2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
1 1/4 cups flour
1 1/2 cups prepared mincemeat (not condensed)
2 cups oat bran flakes cereal
3/4 cup confectioners' sugar

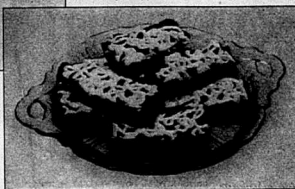

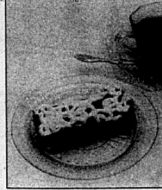

Spread mixture in prepared pan. Spread remaining 3/4 cup mincemeat over dough. Bake 25 to 30 minutes until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean. Transfer pan to wire rack to cool completely.

Glaze: Melt remaining 3 tablespoons butter. Stir remaining 2 tablespoons lemon juice into confectioners' sugar. Stir in butter and 1 teaspoon lemon rind. Decoratively drizzle over cooled bars, and let stand until set. Cut into bars.

Makes 20 bars.

S'mores Squares

5 whole graham crackers
1 box (12.9 oz.) fudge brownie mix
1 egg
1/4 cup vegetable oil
3 tablespoons water
1/2 cup chopped walnuts

Grease an 11 3/4 x 7 1/2-inch baking pan. Melt 1/2 cup butter. Heat oven to 350° F. In large bowl, stir melted butter, brown sugar, 2 tablespoons lemon juice and 1 teaspoon rind together until combined. Add flour and 3/4 cup mincemeat; mix until combined. Fold in cereal.

Topping

2 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
3/4 cup firmly packed brown sugar
3 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 cup chopped walnuts
1/2 cup shredded coconut

Preheat oven to 375° F. Lightly grease an 11x7-inch baking dish. Place graham crackers in bottom of dish in a single layer, breaking into pieces if necessary; set aside.

In large bowl, combine brownie mix, egg, oil and water; beat 2 minutes. Stir in walnuts, and pour brownie batter over graham crackers.

To make topping, in medium bowl, beat eggs and vanilla until fluffy. Stir in brown sugar, flour and baking powder. Pour topping over brownie batter, and sprinkle with chopped walnuts and coconut.

Tall Can of Soup Helps Stretch Food Budget

(NU)—Budget-conscious cooks are always looking for ways to stretch their food dollars. And they've found soup an invaluable helper.

One of the most popular and versatile soups, Cream of Mushroom, is, for example, a major ingredient for countless soups. Officials at Campbell Soup, which sells 325 million cans of Cream of Mushroom soup a year, say soups use more than 80 percent of that variety as an ingredient in economical recipes.

Roberta Kitchinoff, marketing manager, Campbell's condensed soups, says the growth in three-to-five person households and the interest in money-saving, casserole recipes that can be prepared with the soup encouraged the company to add Cream of Mushroom to its line of Family-sized, 26-ounce cans of soup.

Here's one casserole recipe designed for the new can of Cream of Mushroom:

Salsa, Cilantro Add Spice To Holiday Breakfasts

(NU)—Looking for a quick and easy breakfast to spice up holiday mornings? Huevos Rancheros—Southwestern-style breakfast eggs—should fill the bill on all counts. Made with bright red salsa, with a touch of green onion and fresh green cilantro leaves, this festive breakfast dish will brighten even the chilliest of winter mornings. It was developed by Chef Sam Arnold for La Restaurant brand foods.

CLASSIC GREEN BEAN BAKE (8 1/2 cups or 10 servings)

- 1 can (26 ounces) Campbell's condensed Cream of Mushroom Soup
- 1 cup milk
- 2 teaspoons soy sauce
- 1/8 teaspoon pepper
- 2 packages (16 ounces each) frozen cut green beans, cooked and drained
- 2 cans (2.8 ounces each) or 1 can (6 ounces) french fried onions

In a 13-by-9-inch baking dish, combine soup, milk, soy sauce and pepper. Stir in green beans and half of the onions. Bake at 350° F. for 25 minutes or until hot; stir. Top with remaining onions. Bake 5 minutes more.

Variation: Substitute 4 cans (about 16 ounces each) cut green beans, drained, for frozen green beans.

A Decorative Touch

Holiday homes should smell as good as they look. Simmering potpourri is terrific for this, and greens with red ornaments around the pot make a great centerpiece as well.

Center throw pillows with ribbons and bows to give them the look of Christmas packages. Colorful holiday yarn works well, too, and won't get crushed as easily as other ribbons.

Give children a chance to help with decorations by giving them last year's Christmas cards, some scissors, tape, ribbons and yarn. You can also help them make festive holiday jewelry using miniature tree ornaments. They make great gifts, too!

Use the child's picture instead of a name tag for kids who are too young to read. This makes it easier for kids (and parents) to find their presents.

Matchboxes covered with gift wrap and lined with tissue make the perfect boxes for tiny pieces of jewelry. Oversized gifts can be wrapped easily with a decorative plastic bag made just for those hard-to-wrap presents.

Don't forget about all of these extra things you can do to make Christmas even more special!

Low-Calorie Snack Ideas For Popcorn Lovers

(NU)—Trying to control your weight means you have to find a tasty snack without giving guile.

And that's where popcorn comes in. It is still tops when it comes to being light and delicious. And few snacks are as affordable or fun to make. On the nutrition side, hot air poppers provide the best popping method.

In fact, many well-respected diet programs list hot air popcorn as an allowable exchange for a slice of bread.

A three-cup popped serving has only 97 calories and only a trace of fat.

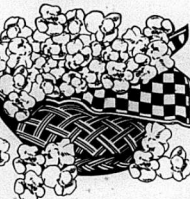

However, it's loaded with complex carbohydrates and dietary fiber. On the cost side, after the initial $20 investment for an air popper is made, an average serving of hot air popcorn costs only about five cents. According to a study by The West Bend Company, the same serving of microwave popcorn costs an average of five times as much.

But whether you're watching your weight or eating everything in sight, a few ingredients and some experimentation make snacking fun. Try these recipes next time you make a batch of popcorn. Enjoy them. But don't be afraid to experiment on your own.

Party Mix Pop

- 6 cups popped popcorn
- 4 cups any Chex cereal
- 1 cup salted nuts
- 1/2 cup butter
- 5 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
- 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1 teaspoon lite seasoning salt
- 1/8 teaspoon cayenne pepper

Preheat oven to 250° F. Place popcorn, cereal and nuts in large roasting pan. Melt butter in small pan over low heat. Remove from heat. Stir in Worcestershire sauce, garlic powder, seasoning salt and cayenne. Pour over popcorn mixture. Toss with hands to coat thoroughly. Bake 45 minutes, stirring every 15 minutes. Remove and serve.

Great Excuse for Having A Party!

Calorie Cutter: Use 1/4 cup diet margarine. No nuts—in the recipe, that is, not at the party.

Yield: 11 cups.

Here's another good recipe from the highly acclaimed book, For Popcorn Lovers Only, by Diane Pfeiffer:

Rocky Pop Trail Mix

- 8 cups popped popcorn
- 1 cup assorted unsalted nuts
- 1 cup chocolate or carob chips
- 2 teaspoons powdered sugar
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon

Place popcorn in large bowl. Toss in fruit, nuts and chocolate or carob chips. Sift sugar and cinnamon over mixture and serve.

Great Idea for Hiking Outdoors or Back To The TV From The Kitchen.

Calorie Cutter: Sprinkle with 1-2 packets sweetener in place of sugar. Use 1/4 cup fruit and nuts. Skip the chips.

Shortcut: Toss 3 cups of commercially prepared trail mix into popcorn. Yield: 11 cups

Shopping Tips

Preparing creative turkey entrées starts with smart shopping and selection.

- Rely on foods which are packaged in smaller portion sizes.
- When possible, select food items from the salad bar, bakery and bulk sections of the grocery store. This allows you to choose only the amount needed.
- Don't forget to take full advantage of the deli department. These fully cooked, ultra-convenient foods are ideal for preparing a meal at a moment's notice.
- Try to plan the week's menu in advance to minimize shopping time and impulse buying at the supermarket.

Preparation Tips

To have the most convenient and effortless meals, follow these guidelines.

- Make cooking do double duty. It takes almost as much time and energy to prepare one batch of a recipe as it does two. When possible, double recipes and divide them into individual-size portions; refrigerate or freeze for later.
- Use the microwave oven. It's great for speedy defrosting of meats and other foods.
- Proper storage of prepared dishes and food products is essential for good food quality and taste.

Select a Fresh Tree—And Keep It Watered

(NU)—When choosing a real Christmas tree for your home, use good sense—sight and smell.

When making your selection, a fresh fragrance and green color are the first indicators of freshness, says the National Christmas Tree Association.

Before shopping for your tree, decide where in your home you're going to put it, so you'll know what height and shape you're going to need.

But don't neglect the freshness test:

- Hold a branch about six inches from the tip and then pull your hand toward the tip, allowing the branch to slip through your fingers. If needles fall off in your hand, it's not fresh.
- Lift the tree a few inches off the ground and then let it drop on the stump. If too many of the needles on the outside of branches fall off, it's not fresh. But remember, many needles inside the tree do turn brown and fall off throughout the growing season.

After It's Home

Once you get your tree home, the National Christmas Tree Association recommends these steps to keep your tree well-watered:

- Make a fresh cut across the base of the trunk about a quarter of an inch. When a tree is cut at the farm, a seal of sap naturally forms to keep in moisture. Making a small cut in that seal permits the tree to absorb the water you provide for it.

- Put your tree in a water-holding stand immediately. If you're not ready to decorate, put it in a bucket of water.
- Keep plenty of water in your stand. A Christmas tree can absorb a gallon of water in the first 24 hours and several quarts thereafter. Water your tree daily.

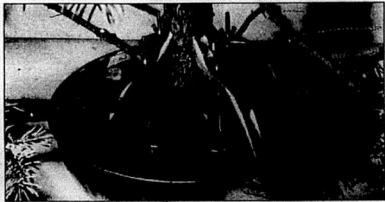

And never forget that as a living piece of nature, a Christmas tree that gets too dry and brittle should be removed.

Carefully inspect the cords supplying electricity to your holiday decorations to be sure they are in good working condition and have a UL label. Check for damaged sockets and insulation. Throw away frayed ones. Don't forget to unplug decorations when you go to bed at night or leave home.

Use common sense. Keep Christmas trees watered and away from heat sources such as fire places, wood stoves and heaters," says Chief James Halsey, president of the International Association of Fire Chiefs.

"For a safe holiday, it's important to take precautions, including making sure smoke detectors are installed in all levels of your home and are working properly," he says. "If you don't have them in your home, now is a good time to give your family an early present."

Gift Wrap Ideas

Here are some great tips to make your holiday gift wrapping a little more unique.

- Designate an area of the house as a wrapping station. Lay out tape, scissors and wrapping materials.
- Use feathers, shells and confetti.
- Add small bunches of dried flowers or herbs tied with ribbon.
- Tie packages with hanks and fabric ribbons.
- Secure ends of package with double-sided tape.
- Use pipe cleaners to secure tags or bows.

- Wrap odd-sized gifts with tulle or tissue—make a pouf at the top.
- Weave together contrasting ribbons as wrap.
- Tie big pinch bows with twists of wire covered with ribbon when wrapping.
- Spray tissue-wrapped packages with glue or snow, and dust with confetti or glitter.
- Place glittery confetti inside the gift wrap or inside holiday greeting cards for a special surprise.

With a little ingenuity, you can make your holiday gifts special for every family member and friend.
